Gary Jobson's "SPEED & PASSION"

a fast-paced summary of the key aspects of today's Sport of Sailing, including, among other topics:
ULTIMATE SAILING, RACING TO BERMUDA, U.S. TEAM'S CHINESE OLYMPIC QUEST, POLAR SAILING, and the AMERICA'S CUP

Gary Jobson, is a world class sailor, television commentator and author. He has won many championships in one design classes, the America's Cup with Ted Turner in 1977, the infamous Fastnet Race and many of the world's ocean races. In college he was twice named College Sailor of the Year (1972, 1973). He has been broadcasting for ESPN since 1985 and won a 1988 Emmy Award for his coverage of yachting at the South Korean Olympic Games.

In October 2003 Gary was inducted into the America's Cup Hall of Fame by the Herreshoff Marine Museum. In 1999 Gary won the Nathanael G. Herreshoff Trophy, US Sailing's most prestigious award. This trophy is awarded annually to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the sport of sailing in the United States.

Prior to the seminar, a cocktail party will be hosted by Mount Gay Rum. No one under the age of 21 will be served alcoholic beverages. The Sponsors, YRALIS and MBYC remind all participants of the need to drink responsibly.
